Thank you for considering Elevate to assist you in expanding your family. As a parent through egg donation and surrogacy, I understand the anxiety that can sometimes be experienced through assisted reproduction. At Elevate, it is our philosophy that family building should be a joyful enterprise. Whatever path has led you to us, we are honored to be part of your journey.

Whether you are hoping to become a parent for the first time or expand the family you already have, this is an exciting time!

In an effort to streamline the path to parenthood and alleviate confusion, we offer the inclusive Guarantee Package which includes all necessary legal work: egg donor contracts and review, psychological evaluations, genetic counseling sessions, IVF complication insurance, and escrow services.

Our Guarantee Package also offers what most agencies and even clinics cannot warrant, that your donor will pass medical clearance and that your cycle will result in at least one viable embryo post PGT-A. If this criteria is not met, then your entire agency fee is waived for an additional cycle with the same or a different donor.

At our agency we stand behind the exceptional women who are Elevate donors.

We know that with Elevate you will love your journey. Thank you for growing your family with us.

Medical Clearance Guarantee

Post-PGT Viable Embryo Guarantee

In the event at least one viable embryo post-PGT-A is not achieved, then Elevate shall cover additional psychological screening fees, genetic counseling fees, legal fees, escrow fees, IVF complication insurance policy, and full agency fee as required.

WHAT EXACTLY IS GUARANTEED IF I CHOOSE THE GUARANTEE PACKAGE?

1.) Your donor will be medically cleared by your physician.

If your donor is not cleared by your physician (low AMH, AFC, Infectious Disease Testing, Carrier Screening match, or any other medical reason) then you will be rematched with an Elevate donor of your choice and not be responsible for any additional coordination fees, psychological assessment fees, AMH fees, or genetic counseling and pedigree costs.

Sometimes a donor is not medically cleared because of a matching carrier mutation with the Intended Parents). Even though the Intended Parents are partially at fault, our Elevate Guarantee still stands and our agency will cover any additional psychological and/or genetic counseling and pedigree fees that would normally be incurred.

2.) You will have at least one (1) post-PGT viable embryo.

The Guarantee Package provides you with the assurance of having at least one (1) viable embryo following preimplantation genetic testing (PGT). A viable embryo is defined as one deemed suitable for implantation by an IVF physician during the embryo transfer procedure. In the event no viable embryo is obtained, you will have the option to be matched again, either with the same or a different Elevate donor, at no extra expense*. This includes a waiver of additional agency fees, psychological evaluation and genetic counseling fees for the donor, coverage of legal fees for both the intended parent(s) and donor, additional escrow services, and an additional IVF complication insurance policy – all covered by Elevate.

() Does not include donor compensation, donor travel fees, or medical costs involved with the IVF process.*
